Francis Grabler, to Whom $393,000 Wa Loaned, Makesa Statement as to His Western Interests, Silver Says He Will Pay.

ST. LOUIS. MO., Feb. 2.—Mr. Francis Grabber, to whom Mr. William J. Quin-law, Jr., cashier of the Chemical Na-tional Bank, of New York, learned $75, 000 of the bank's money, in consequence of which Mr. Quinhan saw in to resign his position as oushier, is now in the case, been a depositor at the for more than six years;

as soid he did not now re-name of the stock in which sterested. He also admitted $ of a statement made by W. H. friend of Gardier, that on Thursday kee the Chemican National bank had accepted a demand note of $201,500 from Grabler, agreeing at the same time not to press Grabler for the money.

Same terms not to press Grabler for the money.

Prosident Williams further said digastrating had been found to justify the bank in beginning a criminal action against Mr. Quinlan. Frestdem Will lights said Mr. Silver called on his lade yeared as the property of the money of the edness to the bank was $201,500. It seems that Mr. Querlan had not reported the latest transactions to President Williams. Becoming a little anylong, Mr. Querlan made a statement of Ms. Grablers account before President Williams and the directors at less Thursday's meating. The directors made no complaint on this head, knowing Mr. Grabler, but sent a message inviting him to wait upon them. Mr. Grabler called there, and the result of the conference was that Mr. Grabler gave the directors then agree ductor present the directors then agree ductor present the directors then agree ductor present in the season of the sent of the conference was that Mr. Grabler gave the directors then agree ductor press from but to afford him a margin of thinks in which to pay the notic.

Miss Silmmer has been sufferling from nervou: prostration for the past week owing to a severe slock she received when she went to the photographer's.

Miss Silmmer is very thin, very prim and very proper, and Mr. Kunmerer, the photographer, is the very pink of politeness in the opinion of most of his customers. But Miss Silmmer declares that he is a wretch.

ers. But Miss Slimmer declares that he is a wretch.

This is how the difference of opinion came about: She wanted a clever photograpiler to take a view of her drawing room, so she went to Mr. Kammerer.

Do you take interiers, Mr. Kammerers' be asked, after the chall polite introductor' conarks about the weather.

Mr. Kammere booked troubled and hesitated, but handy he replied:

"Well, I—er—have not begun to do—er—that sort of thing yet. It takes a good time to—er—get a picture of the interior. But I shall have an X-ray apparatus added to my outlit shortly, and "—here he spoke in some confusion—"If you wish to have a picture of your interior, I shall"—

But Miss Slimmer fainted on the spot — Strand Magazine.
